

There are machines designed for excellence in their performance, becoming a symbol of efficiency and reliability.

Since 1937, our technological solutions have continued to evolve, providing unique and original innovations. Our time has always been and continues to be dedicated exclusively to creating machines for pasta, successfully producing plants the world over.

Technology over time